Dear Mother
I received your kind letter of the 10th and was glad to hear from you and to hear that you were well and happy. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same.
I have not much news to write at present.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written in brown ink on aged, yellowish paper. The lines are somewhat faded and difficult to decipher, but appear to be a continuous block of text. The script is characteristic of 17th or 18th-century handwriting.
